

Who are we?

Our team of experienced tax lawyers and tax experts is specialised in the management of individuals working abroad.

From Neuchâtel in Switzerland we collaborate closely with our network of experts throughout the world to offer you optimised solutions even for complex situations.

Today we work with multinationals operating in the industrial and service sectors (petrochemicals, energy, construction as well as financial institutions, telecommunications, information technology and marketing).

We are looking forward to sharing our extensive experience of international mobility with you!

We ...

 Provide you with clear and optimised solutions. Personalised to meet your needs, the options we suggest you to implement will allow you to avoid expensive mistakes.

 Make your “tax” life as easy as possible. We will ensure that all aspects of overseas assignments are managed compliantly, efficiently and financially optimised.

 Have developed expertise in tax in analysing worldwide fiscal legislation and its impact. We would like to share with you the feedback received from the Directors of Human Resources we accompany.

 Advise you on the 5 continents. Your dedicated LEXabb correspondent in Switzerland will be your unique contact for your worldwide tax issues.

 Assist companies and employees before, during and after the transfer: by developing a tax analysis, by completing the appropriate procedures and by deregistering with the local authorities.

 Have chosen a simple method of fees. Our fees are agreed together from the start of our partnership. They correspond to the service level necessary for your needs.
